

MARKET IS INCONCLUSIVE

Small Dealings Transacted and Little Variation in Prices Yesterday.

LARGE SHIPMENT OF GOLD

Yellow Mineral is the Cheapest Form of Remittance Under Present Conditions.

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, April 23.—Today's stock market was rather inconclusive. The small dealings were transacted at little variation in prices, and new developments were few and were without effect upon the market.

The bank statement shows how money continues to accumulate here, and explains the easy outward movement of gold. The portfolio inflow of money does not carry an indication of a business recovery, and is not favorable influence on the stock market.
